

ICPR-UGCASC WINTER REFRESHER COURSE
IN PHILOSOPHY

Indian Council of Philosophical Research and UGC Academic Staff College, University of Lucknow announce a special winter Refresher Course in Philosophy on “Philosophy of Language – Basic Concepts and Some Concerns in Indian and Western Philosophy” to be held from January 9-30, 2010.

This is a unique opportunity for teachers, research scholars and M.Phil. students of Philosophy and allied disciplines to learn from some of the most eminent scholars of the subject on technical issues of Philosophy of language. The proposed speakers for the course include Professor J.N. Mohanty, Professor P.K. Mukhopadhyaya, Professor Mrinal Miri, Professor Srinivasa Rao, Professor Ashok Vohra, Professor R.P. Singh, Professor D.N. Dwivedi, Professor H.N. Mishra, Professor Nirmalagshu Mukherjee, Professor Ambika Datta Sharma, and others. The Course will be a Three week residential course with 18 working days of 8 hours duration, six hours per day. The course will include lectures, panel discussions, group discussion and presentations.

Those who would like to participate in the course may contact :

Professor Nishi Pandey asclko@rediffmail.com (09839128864)

Professor Rakesh Chandra rakeshphilosophy@yahoo.com (09839226303)

Ms. Preeti Chandra icprlkw@gmail.com (09415764936)

Proposed dates for the course are from January 9-30, 2010. Please apply through proper channel.

(Nishi Pandey)
Director
UGC-Academic Staff College

(Rakesh Chandra)
Head, Philosophy Deptt.
Course Coordinator.